

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Discontinuation of Journal from UGC-CARE Reference List of Quality Journals from September 2019

The 'Journal of Acharya Narendra Dev Research Institute' (ISSN: 0976 – 3287) was earlier listed in the UGC list of approved Journals and given No. 48030, Thereafter, UGC replaced the List with UGC Care Journal in which the 'Journal of Acharya Narendra Dev Research Institute' was referred with No. 12 under the Multidisciplinary section.

UGC has recently done certain changes in the criteria for UGC-CARE Reference List of Quality Journals. Following the same, the 'Journal of Acharya Narendra Dev Research Institute' has been discontinued from the approved list of Journals from September, 2019. We are accepting articles for publication in the respective issue but we will not be responsible for any future consequence arising due to the discontinuation of the Journal in the UGC CARE List from September 2019.

The reasons and cause for the discontinuation of the Journal have not yet been informed to us. The management and the editorial board are working around the clock for the inclusion of the Journal back in the UGC CARE List. The Editorial Board shall inform the stakeholders, researchers, and academicians as soon as the Journal is included again in the UGC-CARE Reference List of Quality Journals.
